Accomplishments

As a trooper I attended the Borkenstein School of Alcohol/Drug Testing Law in Action sponsored by Indiana University in 1988. I was a field support trooper and performed solution changes and minor repairs on BAC instruments. I was also an instructor in the BAC program. I promoted to Detective in 1990 and remained a detective for 13 years. In that capacity I investigated felony traffic collisions as well as license and fuel tax fraud crimes. I have instructed collision investigation at the Washington State Patrol Academy.
